

British Columbia
Assembly of
First Nations

FIRST
NATIONS
SUMMIT

Union of
British Columbia
Indian Chiefs

Notice to BC First Nations

BC FIRST NATIONS CHILDREN AND FAMILIES JURISDICTION SYMPOSIUMS

Building on work done in 2021, the First Nations Leadership Council will be hosting speakers from Nations and organizations leading in standing up jurisdiction of Child and Family wellbeing services. Presentations will be hosted on in the mornings and breakout groups will be hosted in the afternoons to discuss the implementation of the Act Respecting First Nations, Inuit and Metis Children, Youth and Families in BC.

We encourage multiple representatives from your Nation to participate, including BC Chiefs, Councils, hereditary/traditional leadership, staff members/technicians, youth, and knowledge keepers. Please register for one or more of the following sessions — we encourage you to participate in as many symposiums and/or engagements as you like.

1. Tuesday, March 1st and Thursday, March 3rd: Presentations

- Wrapping Our Ways Guidebook: Halie Bruce and Sarah Morales

2. Saturday, March 5th: Presentations and Engagement

- Cowessess First Nation: Chief Cadmus Delorme
- Splatshin First Nation: Former Kukpi7 Wayne Christian

3. Tuesday, March 8th: Presentations and Engagement

- Sto:lo Tribal Council: Matriarch Coordinator Helen Joe
- Office of the Wet'suwet'en: Gretchen Woodman and Debbie Pierre
- Gwen Phillips: Ktunaxa Nation; BCFNDGI Champion

4. Tuesday March 22nd: Presentations and Engagement

- Huu-ay-aht First Nation: Kim Baird and Edward Johnson

5. Saturday, March 26th: Presentations and Engagement

- Nipawi Kikanoosit: Treaty 8 Hereditary Chief and youth presenter

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

ALDERHILL PLANNING INC. WILL BE FACILITATING THE SESSIONS OVER ZOOM

FOR REGISTRATION INFORMATION
PLEASE CONTACT JAKE@ALDERHILL.CA

